

Insurance Times: Choose to Save wins awards

July 23, 2002. Vol. XXI No. 11

The Choose to Save education program won top honors in the 23rd annual Telly Awards for its public service announcements aimed at educating Americans about the importance of saving and planning financially for all life stages. The two ads, "The Fugitive" and "Survivor," were developed by the Employee Benefit Research Institute and the American Savings Education Council and underwritten by Fidelity Investments.
