

Philadelphia's new BOP designed for professionals

InsuranceTimes, April 1, 2003, Vol. XXIII, No. 6

Copyright, 2003 © M&S Communications, Inc., publisher of InsuranceTimes

Philadelphia Insurance Cos., A.M. Best rated A+ , has released a new Business Owners Policy (BOP) as a companion to its professional liability policy.

The BOP 's comprehensive property and liability coverage is being offered in conjunction with professional liability offered to all types of professionals, especially small law firms, accounting firms and consultants. By purchasing the BOP and professional liability coverage from one company, many different exposures are addressed by a single insurer.

This new product is only offered to current professional liability policyholders, or those who plan to purchase professional liability; customers can receive an all in one deal.

The BOP is currently available in AZ, CA, CT, CO, FL, GA, IL, IN, MA, MI, MN, MO, NC, NJ, NY, OH, OR, PA, TX, WA and targets risks which occupy 5,000 square feet or less. Limits up to $1,000,000 are available. Additional coverages available by endorsement include Employee Dishonesty, Money and Securities, Mechanical Breakdown, Outdoor Signs, and Interior Glass. □