

RI Gov. names Partridge; Spence joins Delta Dental's DSM; XS Brokers adds Wild

InsuranceTimes, April 29, 2003, Vol. XXIII, No. 8 ©Copyright M&S Communciations, Inc., publisher of InsuranceTimes

Partridge Snow & Hahn

Partridge Snow & Hahn partner John Partridge was recently named to the Rhode Island Economic Policy Council by Governor Donald Carcieri. The RIEDC consists of representatives from business, labor, higher education and government. Partridge Snow & Hahn has offices in Providence and Boston.

Clark Associates Insurance

Clark Associates Insurance of Portland, Maine has elected Dale Hudson president. Hudson has been with Clark for 25 years.

DSM

DSM, the Boston-based company that administers Delta Dental Plan of Massachusetts, has hired Bryan Spence as director of community benefit and philanthropy. He will be responsible for the strategic direction of DSM's Oral Health Foundation, which makes grants to reduce oral health disparities in minority and disadvantaged populations. He is also responsible for the company's community benefit programs.

The Concord Group

The Concord Group Insurance Companies, of Concord, N.H., has promoted Michael P. Capozza to vice president of information systems. Starting in the insurance industry in 1977 as a claims representative Capozza changed career paths in 1990 when he entered the technology field of Information Systems Manager for a regional New England insurer.

XS Brokers Insurance

Susan E. Wild, CIC, has joined XS Brokers Insurance Agency, Quincy, Mass., as an underwriter. Wild is responsible for working with retail agents to find a market for their hard-to-place risks. Wild, a resident of North Attleborough, previously worked as an underwriter in Wellesley. She has more than 13 years of underwriting experience.

Insurity

Insurity, a ChoicePoint company, announced the appointment of Phil Handy to the position of regional vice president. Handy brings 18 years of senior sales and marketing experience in the P&C technology arena.

Cape Cod Agent of Year

Kathleen F. Silvia of The Fair Insurance Agency in Centerville, Mass. was named Insurance Professional of the Year by the Cape Cod Insurance Agents Association.

Cowan Financial

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. has awarded its National Chairman's Trophy, to New York-based Cowan Financial Group for an unprecedented 15th time in 17 years. □